Dear Jack,

I appreciate the interest expressed in Naval Intelligence in your letter of 11 September, 1973.

I fully support the DCI's involvement in intelligence community ceremonies and I will advise you of, and extend an invitation to, our next award ceremony.

May I suggest, in addition to the awards ceremonies, that the Deputy to the DCI accept for the DCI on social functions which the DCI cannot attend.

I look forward to your attendance at the next Naval Intelligence awards ceremony.

Sincerely,

E. F. RECTANUS
Rear Admiral, U.S. Navy
Director of Naval Intelligence
